Search and Selection

We source, screen and introduce candidates that match your vacancy with candidates' approval and with full disclosure of all relevant information. We will support the full recruitment process, for example with interview planning and exchanging feedback.

We will personally interview all candidates before introduction and will add information such as availability, salary expectations, level of English, communication skills, preferred tasks and technologies et cetera, and will always be honest about our impression of the candidates, and pros and cons with regards to a potential match.

We will inform the candidate about your company, expectations and what you can offer, before we introduce them. Throughout the whole process, we will ensure an optimal candidate experience.

What we offer

No Hire No Pay

Guarantee: in case of lay-off or leave of the new employee within the statutory varetturn 100% of the fee.

Payment term: 30 days. A successfee will be invoiced on the confirmed start date of the new employee.

How we make the perfect

MATCH

Special for everyone

We source and introduce candidates that match your vacancy with candidates' approval and with full disclosure of all relevant information. We will include a "paper screening", whereas we select and filter applicants based on their CV (experience and skills match) and additional information provided, for example indicated level of English, availability, salary indication, work permit necessity et cetera.

We will inform the candidate about your company, expectations and what you can offer. You will take care of interviewing and arranging the further recruitment process.

The NEXT CHAPTER
